"Five years ago," says Anga A. Lewis, Ricard, N. Y., "I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and had been given up by my physicians. I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after using two bottles was completely cured."

It is about as hard to break some people of bad habits as it is to break Malarial fever when it once gets a firm hold upon one. Mr. C. Himrod, of Lancaster, Ohio, says, "Simmons Liver Regulator broke a case of Malarial Fever of three years' standing for me, and less than one bottle did the business. I shall use it when in need of any medicine, and I recommend it."

"Last winter I had la grippe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents a bottle by A. F. Hargrave, druggist.

The preacher's council, which was to have been held in the Methodist church yesterday and today, was postponed on account of the inability of many of the preachers to be present, as they are engaged in holding protracted meetings at various places throughout the district and we hear that a great deal of good work is being done.

There will be a concert at the chapel of Tazewell Seminary, given under the auspices of the young ladies of the Presbyterian church on next Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. CURE FOR HEADACHE.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tonic to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only Fifty cents at A. F. Hargrave's Drug Store.

Lynched on Elkhorn.

After boarding a westbound passenger train at Keystone, attempting to kill Capt. McCulloch and accidentally and probably fatally shooting Mr. W. H. Strother, Alex Jones, a negro desperado, was taken from the officers and his body riddled with bullets. The report of Mr. Strother's killing, as he was reported killed, spread along "the horn" like wildfire, and the populace, as one man, with no preconceived arrangement, flocked to the scene with grim desperation and determination upon their countenances. Jones was quietly removed from the jail at Welch and placed on No. 3 for transportation to Charleston for safe keeping; but the intention was divulged to the mob, who stopped the train at Hemp hill and took the manacled negro from the officers, led him up a rugged pathway a distance of some two hundred yards from the railroad, bound him to a small bush, then poured into his body a shower of lead from every conceivable shooting iron. The terrified negro cried aloud in his agony, but his dying groans and prayers for mercy were lost amidst the roar of musketry, and long before the echoes died out across the mountains his soul had been launched into eternity. Upon his mutilated body was placed a placard of warning to all who attempt to destroy life.—Bluefield Telegraph of the 29th.

Under the suggestive heading of "Hell on the Horn," the Telegraph of yesterday, says:

There are from 500 to 800 negroes crowded in and about a hall in the suburb of Elkhorn tonight excitedly discussing the killing of Alex Jones. Committees have been appointed and have personally called on the county officials of McDowell, and asked for immediate action to bring the members of the mob to justice. The authorities refused to have anything to do in the matter and the negroes are making bold threats. The town officials have sworn in a large number of extra officers and armed them with Winchester's to be in readiness if trouble should break out.

From latest intelligence last night we learn that W. H. Strother, whose accidental shooting led to the lynching of Alex Jones at Hemphill Tuesday night, was in a precarious condition with chances for recovery against him.

Wedding Bells.

At the home of the of the bride's parents, on Railroad Avenue, on Wednesday, the 29th inst., Miss Ada Buston and Mr. J. O. Cammack, of Kokomo, Ind., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. I. P. Martin performed the ceremony in a beautiful and impressive manner in the presence of a number of friends. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining room where a bountiful repast was laid, and it is hardly necessary to say that it was enjoyed by all present.

The presents were numerous and handsome, showing the esteem in which Miss Buston was held by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cammack left on the evening train for Indianapolis, where they will stay for a few days, and then go to Greencastle, Ind., where they will make their future home.

Mr. Cammack is certainly to be congratulated, as his bride was one of Tazewell's most attractive young ladies.

The News wishes this young couple a long and happy life and may no cloud ever dim the halo of love which now surrounds them.

Among the guests present on this happy occasion were Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Gildersleeve, Dr. and Mrs. Jas. O'Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Alderson, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Sexton, Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Pyott, Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Stras, Mrs. T. P. Bowen, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Rose Spotts, Mrs. Dr. R. Gillespie, Mrs. Hutton, Misses Bettie and Theresa Alexander, Carrie Spotts, Nettie Witten, Mary Higginbotham, Sallie Surface, Joie Brittain, Hattie Surface, Ella Bowen, Sallie May Haynes, Rev. L. K. Haynes, and Messrs. H. W. O'Keefe, M. J. Kelly, Geo. C. Perry, Ed. L. Wright, Stuart Brown, P. H. Kite, V. J. Anderson, Prof. Todd.

We know of but one community in the world where dyspepsia is practically unknown, and that is the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. These good people have been studying the question of digestion for more than a hundred years, and that they understand it pretty thoroughly, is evidenced in the foregoing fact. Their Digestive Cordial is the safest and best remedy in cases of indigestion that we know of. A trial bottle can be had through your druggists for the trifling sum of 10 cents.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies the system with food already digested, and at the same time aids the digestion of other foods. It will almost instantly relieve the ordinary symptoms of indigestion, and no sufferer need be told what these are.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

I noticed in one issue of the News that your correspondent from Shaw's Creek was lamenting over the destitute and community like Sodom and Gomorrah. He sent Jonah to preach to the Ninevites.
